DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicants have claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention, which are not found in the prior art, either singularly or in combination. The independent claim identifies the following uniquely distinct features:

1. Regarding claim 1 – A method for minimizing the access delay in a wireless communication system including at least a base station system and at least a mobile terminal having communication capability with a fixed part of a wireless communication system and being adapted to open a communication with a radio access network of the base station system so as to initiate a Temporary Block Flow establishment each time data packets are to be transmitted to the radio access network and the Temporary Block Flow being released when the transmission of the packet has been completed, comprising the steps of: requesting Temporary Block Flow establishment by means of a Radio Link Control message sent on one of a Control Channel of the radio access and Packet Random Access Channel sending the Radio Link Control message on a TDMA slot of the Packet Random Access Channel channel, organizing the Packet Random Access Channel being on a predetermined number of TDMA slots in the multiframe, grouping the TDMS slots by four to form a Packet Random Access Channel block, and when the mobile terminal has at least a packet to transmit, it sends a Packet Channel Request message on the

Art Unit: 2616

Packet Random Access Channel and the Packet Channel Request message is transmitted in a TDMA slot randomly selected among the TDMA slots that compose a first PRACH block.

The closest prior art, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-4 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Conclusion

Claims 1-4 being allowable, Prosecution On The Merits Is Closed in this application.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
